BIRD'S NEST

FOLK HORROR - SHORT FILM - 16 PAGES

Logline

A man walks across an empty meadow to meet the woman who draws him in. Something with wings is waiting there too.

Synopsis

Jonas heads to a secluded place to meet Lara — a woman who simultaneously attracts and unsettles him. On his way, he is confronted by a brutal and inexplicable attack that undermines his sense of reality. Once Lara appears, charming and inscrutable, Jonas follows her deeper into a menacing landscape. Memories and instinctive dread warn him to turn back, but his desire for something greater proves stronger. What begins as an encounter evolves into a choice between turning back and surrendering to the very thing his instincts are warning him against.

Festival Recognition

Dunwich Horror Fest — Winner Short Screenplay

Independent Horror Movie Awards — Nominee Best Short Screenplay

Screenwriter

Ludwig Suykerbuyk

Contact: ludwigantwerpen@gmail.com